

RUDSTONE WALK

EXPLORE YORKSHIRE

THREE NIGHT STAY INCLUDING FARMHOUSE COOKED BREAKFAST £150!

Summer

CALLING ALL CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

A three night stay at Rudstone Walk in the beautiful East Yorkshire countryside costs only £150 per room including a full farmhouse cooked breakfast, served in the farmhouse dining room.

If you are a member of a club, group or society interested in walking, cycling, horse riding, painting, bird watching, or any other hobbies or sports consider Rudstone Walk as a venue to base a break around your favourite pastime. Or try your hand at something new - clay pigeon shooting, golf, sailing or gliding for instance, or maybe even tracing your family tree.

You can even bring your dog with you to stay in the dog friendly rooms and with plenty of land to walk them on it is a real treat for both of you. Woody the woodpecker usually makes an appearance on the feeders outside the dining room at breakfast!

Ideal location

Set in 80 acres of beautiful Yorkshire countryside just outside South Cave, East Riding of Yorkshire. Rudstone Walk is on the edge of the Yorkshire Wolds surrounded by the Vale of York, Ryedale, Lincolnshire Wolds and the Humber Estuary. With such a great location, whether you are walking, riding, driving, bird watching or just relaxing, there are plenty of things to do in and around Rudstone Walk.

A true rural retreat with comfortable courtyard bedrooms There are self catering cottages sleeping from one to six people, (price dependent on occupancy).

The staff are all very knowledgeable about the surrounding area and can advise on routes and information on a whole range of activities.
