country style wedding

Rudstone Walk specialises in the smaller more intimate weddings. As it is such a unique venue, our aim is to meet prospective brides at the soonest possible opportunity. With fresh coffee and advice and experience on tap, we take a hands on role in all parts of the wedding arrangements - we aim to provide a professional and friendly service from enquiry to Big Day! There are no minimum numbers and Rudstone's strength is to personalise the day to suit your budget requirements.

Accommodation

With 14 cosy, country style en-suite rooms you and your guests can really relax and enjoy your wedding weekend. Many arrive on the eve of their wedding to enjoy a pre-wedding dinner so there is no rush on your Big Day!

Wedding Ceremony

We impose no minimum numbers for our wedding celebrations here. We are fully licensed for civil ceremonies.

Our food and professional silver service starts with beautifully set tables with polished cutlery and sparkling glass. Our aim is to provide just what the bride and groom would like for their special day. The evening buffets even have a dedicated team and have the wow factor to get your evening celebrations off with a swing. The food is all prepared on the premises from locally sourced quality produce - no corners are cut in any part of your special occasion.

For any type of country celebration our Function suite converted from an ancient stone barn is a perfect venue. The main function room with its huge patio and fabulous views over the Vale of York is supported by its own private bar area for your own exclusive use.

Function Rooms

Our converted stone barn with its own bar, reception, patio and dining area is a lovely venue for any special occasion. The main dining area can seat upto 80 guests for formal dining but should you require additional space then a small heated starlit marquee extension can be erected on the patio to give extra seating for upto 100 guests or it can be used to provide a disco/dance floor area.

All our food is locally sourced quality produce, freshly prepared exclusively for you and we tailor each menu to suit your own requirements.
